Dear Council Travelers,

Join us to celebrate the soul of France’s southwest region on a unpack-once seven-night journey. A mixture of hill-top bastides and isolated bateaux; Albi on your leisure for walking, countryside excursions and visits to glorious houses.

A string of wonders awaits in this terroir, including masterpieces by Thirane Lautrec, spotlighting vineyards and medieval fortresses, plus a romantic 17th-century chateau. We’ll meet gracious hosts in their family homes and visit Toulouse, discovering the allure of the city’s pink stone landmarks. Witness the unique, cartooned houses of Gimers, venture to Carcassonne, Spain’s largest fortress, and cruise through history along the Canal du Midi. From the palpable effectiveness of Philip Currie our Call to the spiritual favors of St. Sernin and regional cuisine, this captivating journey will leave you with indelible memories.

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with opportunities for independent exploration. Enjoy the camaraderie of traveling with a group and, during free time, the thrill of making your own discoveries. Space in this exclusive journey is limited, and with no single supplement offer, the trip is sure to sell out quickly; so make your reservations today.
