Cruising aboard the Exclusively Chartered Five-Star, Small Ship Le Lapérouse

November 3 to 17, 2020
Dear Council Traveler,

Join us on an exceptional itinerary that encompasses the breadth of Vietnamese culture and the magnificent religious, imperial and artistic traditions of Cambodia. Explore the captivating treasures of ancient pagodas, sampan filled harbors, colonial palaces and dynamic architecture. In the lush jungles of Cambodia, discover the 12th-century temples and sculptures of Angkor, the capital of the Khmer Empire and an astonishing fusion of spiritual devotion and creative genius.

Cruise for seven nights aboard the exclusively chartered, state-of-the-art, Five-Star Le LAPIEROUSE. Featuring only 92 Suites and Staterooms, each with a private balcony, this elegant small ship cruises into small ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

By exclusive arrangement, South Vietnamese-born Kim Phuc, a UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador for Peace; and award winning former news correspondent and media consultant Jim Laurie will accompany us on this program. Hear a firsthand account from Phuc, who was the subject of the photograph “Napalm Girl,” an enduring image from the Vietnam War. Learn more about the fall of Saigon from Laurie, winner of two Emmy Awards and a Peabody Award for his coverage of this time in Vietnam.

This unique program features four UNESCO World Heritage sites—beautiful Ha Long Bay, ancient Hoi An, the dignified Forbidden Purple City in Hue and the vaunted temples of Angkor. Experience Hanoi, Vietnam’s culturally rich capital showcasing an amalgam of Asian and French heritage, and sail in a traditional Vietnamese junk past the limestone karst pillars and forested islands of majestic Ha Long Bay. Explore the juxtaposition of traditional and contemporary architecture in historic, French colonial Saigon.

The allure of ancient customs, colorful traditions and timeless tableaus of Southeast Asia await us on this comprehensive journey, a great value that includes Five-Star accommodations throughout, tours each day in Hanoi and Siem Reap, and a cruise with an excursion in every port, with all meals and alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages onboard the ship. Make your reservation now as space is sure to go quick! Call today while Early Booking Savings and space are still available. Call (800) 942-5004 x 209 or x 217 (email: travel@wacphila.org).

Warm Regards,

Shoshana Altrichter
Vice President of Travel

THE NATURAL BEAUTY OF SOUTHEAST ASIA

Stunning limestone pinnacles rising from teal waters, vivid landscapes, scenic coastlines, delectable cuisine, exquisite architecture, authentic markets and a compelling history render Southeast Asia one of the most alluring regions in the Eastern Hemisphere. Discover Vietnam and Cambodia’s rich cultural legacy as well as Japanese, Chinese, French and American influence that helped shape these countries’ pasts and presents. Experience the social, intellectual and spiritual heartbeat of Vietnam’s captivating people in its palaces, pagodas and temples, and explore the mystique of Cambodia’s Angkor complex.

HANOI, VIETNAM
The undeniable charm of this enigmatic capital city resides in its time-honored rituals and compelling fusion of Vietnamese, Chinese and French-colonial influences. Wide leafy boulevards, modeled after the Champs-Élysées in Paris, are lined with stately Neoclassical mansions and palaces. A red wooden bridge leads you to the Ngoc Son Pagoda, a jewel box on the mystical Hoan Kiem Lake. In Ba Dinh Square, the revered father of the nation lies in state in the granite Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum. Starkly juxtaposed against the Beaux Arts-style Presidential Palace and facing a pristine lake, Ho Chi Minh’s modest two-room stilt house—where he lived from 1958 until his death in 1969—was built to reinforce the revolutionary leader’s image as a “man of the people.”

Cover photo: Cruise among the karst outcrops of idyllic Ha Long Bay, said to have been formed by dragons unleashed by the mythological Jade Emperor.

Post-Program East Meets West Option* *Available at additional cost.
Nearby, the 11th-century One Pillar Pagoda is one of Vietnam’s most iconic temples, designed to resemble a lotus blossom (purity).

Tour the Temple of Literature, a Confucian sanctuary and learning center since A.D. 1070 and a paradigm of traditional Vietnamese architecture. Visit the Hoa Lo Prison Museum, or “Hanoi Hilton,” where American pilots, including the late Senator John McCain, were held as prisoners during the Vietnam War. In the 13th-century Old Quarter, stroll its 36 Streets, named after guilds formed in the middle ages by resident craftspeople.

Ha Long Bay

Board a traditional Vietnamese junk for a private cruise and experience the ethereal beauty of Ha Long Bay, the “Bay of the Descending Dragon.” This UNESCO World Heritage site is characterized by a seascape of over 1600 emerald green pinnacles that soar from the bay’s tranquil waters. Cruise between limestone islands with wave-eroded caves and coves, and walk among the tapering stalactites and stalagmites in the natural grottoes of Thien Cung, the Heavenly Palace Cave.

Hue

The UNESCO World Heritage site of Hue, located on the banks of the Perfume River, was the Imperial City of the Nguyen kings from 1601 to 1945. Explore its Imperial Citadel and the massive ramparts and moat dating from the 18th and 19th centuries. Tour the Imperial Enclosure of the emperor’s residence, palaces, temples and state buildings and the Forbidden Purple City, a citadel within a citadel formerly reserved for the royalty of the Nguyen Dynasty. Visit the 17th-century Thien Mu (Heavenly Lady) Pagoda and the tomb of Emperor Tu Duc, built and designed by the emperor himself during the Nguyen dynasty.

Da Nang

Encircled by the Marble Mountains and clear-blue waters, coastal Da Nang is known for its exquisite Museum of Cham Sculpture, exhibiting the world’s largest collection of indigenous Cham sandstone art and statues dating from the fifth to 15th centuries.

Hoi An

Prior to the 14th century, ancient Hoi An was the commercial capital of the Cham Empire and a strategic global port for the spice trade. This captivating UNESCO World Heritage site preserves more than 800 buildings from the 15th to 19th centuries that emanate a timeless, mystical aura. Learn about the city’s heritage at the Hoi An Museum of History and Culture housed inside the 17th-century Quan Am Pagoda. Visit the grand temple of Phuc Kien Assembly Hall, a masterpiece of Fujian artistry. Stroll the city’s famed handicraft workshops and colorful riverside market and admire the graceful arc of the Lai Vien Keiu Bridge, originally built in 1590.

Featured Guest Speakers

Kim Phuc

On June 8, 1972, 9-year-old Kim Phuc was photographed fleeing a napalm strike. The photograph, “Napalm Girl,” remains one of the most influential images from the Vietnam War. Today, Phuc is a UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador for Peace and the author of Fire Road, the inspirational story of her unexpected survival and unshakeable faith. She shares her experience at global events and has received awards and recognitions, including six honorary doctorates, for work supporting child victims of war and her commitment to global peace. She has also inspired the nonprofit organization KIM Foundation International.

Jim Laurie

Jim Laurie is a distinguished international broadcaster, writer and media consultant who has witnessed many defining moments in Asia’s history for over 50 years. He began covering Indochina for NBC News in 1972 and became the only American network correspondent to witness the fall of Saigon to the North Vietnamese in 1975. Laurie is completing his memoirs of his early days in Vietnam and Cambodia; Indochina: War, Love, and Betrayal is due out in April 2020. He is the recipient of a Peabody Award, two Emmy Awards and an Amnesty International Award and has also co-produced, written and directed several television documentaries.
Saigon (Ho Chi Minh City)
Saigon remains a vibrant convergence of Vietnamese heritage and French panache. Women still don the traditional áo dài, a silk tunic worn over pantaloons. Here, see the neo-Romanesque-style Notre Dame Cathedral and the City Opera House, a stunning counterpart to the Petit Palais in Paris, recalling the city’s French-colonial history. Visit the European-style Central Post Office; the imposing Reunification Hall Palace, the former South Vietnamese presidential palace; and the War Remnants Museum, which offers a Vietnamese perspective on the Vietnam War.
Explore the Ben Than Market, an authentic symbol of Saigon, where merchants offer aromatic spiced cuisine, traditional Chinese medicines and handcrafted wares and textiles.
Outside Saigon, explore the Cu Chi Tunnels, an underground complex and an engineering marvel built by the Viet Cong, stretching over 150 miles from Saigon to the Cambodian border.

Siem Reap, Cambodia, for Angkor
Angkor, a UNESCO World Heritage site, was once the capital of the Khmer Empire. Located in the lush jungles of northern Cambodia, today it is one of the world’s most important archaeological sites.
Near Siem Reap, the Temple of Angkor Wat is the largest religious structure in the world, built in the 12th century by King Suryavarman II to honor the Hindu god Vishnu. Angkor Wat stands in testament to the centuries-long grandeur of the prosperous Khmer Empire.

The astounding Banteay Srei Citadel of the Women is considered the ultimate expression of Khmer genius. Constructed in the 10th century from rose-pink sandstone, the temple is believed to have been built by women based on the intricacy of the elaborate three-dimensional carvings and filigree relief work that adorn its peaked buildings.

On the banks of the Siem Reap River, the monumental walled city of Angkor Thom was the last capital of the Khmer Empire. The towers of its Bayon Temple have approximately 200 stone faces and bas-relief sculptures depicting historical scenes from everyday life of the Angkorian Khmer while interior artwork depicts scenes from Hindu mythology.

The area surrounding the complex includes the ruins of the 11th-century Baphuon “temple-mountain” and the intricately carved Terrace of the Elephants, Terrace of the Leper King and Royal Palace.
Nearby, fascinating Ta Prohm, a 12th-century Buddhist temple, remains largely untouched by man, leaving encroaching jungle fig, banyan and kapok trees to grow out of the ruins. Here, the dynamic lifecycle between nature and humanity provides the basis for Ta Prohm’s legendary “lost city” tales.

Visit a local workshop which provides training for thousands of Cambodians to perpetuate the creation of their traditional, cultural handcrafts.

Admire the ornate, Lai Vien Kieu Bridge, built to link Hoi An’s Chinese and Japanese quarters.

The lotus is one of Buddhism’s most sacred flowers, blooming from muddy waters each morning.

EXCLUSIVELY CHARTERED, FIVE-STAR MV LE LAPIEROUSE

Luxury Small Ship, Innovative Design
Le Lapérouse, launched in 2018, ushers in a new generation of Five-Star small ships, combining revolutionary design and a new standard of luxury for unparalleled cruising. Dock in smaller ports inaccessible to larger ships where authentic cultural experiences and majestic scenery await you.

Respect for the Environment
A new addition to the Ponant “Clean Ship” fleet, an important distinction among ocean-cruising vessels, Le Lapérouse is energy efficient and eco-friendly, protecting fragile marine ecosystems.

Elegant Suites and Staterooms, 100% with Private Balconies
Each of the 92 Five-Star Staterooms and Suites (up to 484 square feet) features a private balcony. Grand Deluxe Suites have a bay window and spacious private terrace. Accommodations offer two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, private bathroom with shower and luxury hotel-style amenities.

Chic and Casual Dining
Dine indoors or alfresco on international and regional cuisine served in the stylish, spacious indoor-outdoor restaurant, at the casual pool deck grill or from 24-hour room service. Daily meals include continental and buffet breakfasts, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and four-course dinner.

Life on Board
Experience the Blue Eye, the world’s first underwater multisensory Observation Lounge. Enjoy sweeping views from the upper lounges—which open to the outdoors—and lectures, cultural performances or film screenings in the state-of-the-art theater. Relax in the spa, sauna or infinity-style swimming pool. The ship has a beauty salon, a fitness room and three elevators. Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available (conditions permitting).

World-Class Service
The highly trained, English-speaking crew is personable and attentive, and the ship has a medical center staffed with a doctor and a nurse.

East Meets West

Post-Program Option*

Journey to Southeast Asia’s “City of Angels,” a mesmerizing blend of hemispheres, comprised of more than 26,000 shrines and multi-tiered roofed temples. Visit three of Bangkok’s most famous temples: Temple of the Golden Buddha, featuring a solid gold Sukothai Buddha statue; Temple of the Reclining Buddha, Bangkok’s largest temple; and Marble Temple, a magnificent white marble sanctuary. Board a longtail boat and see traditional Thai rituals unfold against the backdrop of the city’s emblematic landmarks along the Chao Phraya River.

Explore the lavish Grand Palace Complex, the former royal residence, officially opened in 1785 to mark the rebirth of the Thai nation. The ornamented Temple of the Emerald Buddha is the apogee of Thai art and the spiritual heart of Thailand’s Buddhist faith. The temple is a sanctuary for the nation’s holiest treasure: a solid jasper Buddha statue dating from the 15th century. Tour the Jim Thompson House Museum, the former home of the American who revitalized Thailand’s silk industry, and admire a dazzling collection of Khmer sculptures, Burmese carvings and Chinese porcelain. Accommodations for three nights are in the centrally located, Five-Star The Peninsula Bangkok.
