Dear Council Members,

I invite you to join us for our annual Inside Washington tour, a small-group program of briefings and special events, where you will go behind-the-scenes to hear from, and question, our nation's foreign policymakers. During the week, we will examine the administration's foreign policy on the grounds of war, diplomacy, trade and development; and look at the challenges we face domestically, including ongoing issues surrounding COVID-19, climate change, and national security. Join us in April to see how these topics continue to play out with the whole world watching.

Many participants return year after year, and, as a nationally recognized program, members come from across the country, affording great discussion amongst the group. Returning insiders are already registered – so don't delay, contact us now!

Sincerely,

Shoshana Altrichter
Vice President of Travel
