What is the United Nations Summer Camp?

- A weeklong, in-person summer camp for middle school students (rising 6th, 7th and 8th graders);
- The program features interactive expert speaker briefings, games, activities, and an SDG Action Project;
- Students step into the shoes of diplomats as they work together to study the Sustainable Development Goals;
- Students will learn public speaking tips and strategies while making new friends and having fun;
- Final day trip to the UN Headquarters in NYC, with alternatives as a virtual field trip to the UN or Model UN Simulation;
- Program seeks to empower students with the tools necessary to be agents of change in their schools and local communities!
