Wednesday, March 2

Rolling registration opens for the 2022 United Nations Summer Camp

Monday, March 7 - Position Paper, Videotaped Speech and Policy Resolution Submission Window Opens

Using background research outlined in their (optional) position papers and their newly acquired resolution writing skills, students – in their country and committee groupings – draft final policy resolutions addressing potential solutions to their assigned committee topic. Faculty advisers and/or mentors review final resolutions and submit to Council staff via Google Drive.

Tuesday, March 8 – 2022 United Nations Summer Camp Information Session

Platform: Zoom Time: 5:00 p.m. – 5:45 p.m.

Parents/guardians, students, and teachers interested in learning more about the Council’s 2022 United Nations Summer Camp are invited to join Council staff for a short information session to learn more about this unique summer opportunity for middle school students! Register for the session here.

New! Wednesday, March 16 – Optional Teacher Check-Ins

Platform: Zoom Time: 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

For the 2021-2022 Jr. MUN Program, Council Staff will make themselves available about once per month for optional teacher check-ins. Faculty advisers can join an open virtual session where WAC staff will discuss program goals, activities and timelines, so teachers can feel on schedule for the Jr. Model UN program. These meetings will be particularly helpful to new schools/faculty advisers!
