DEAR COUNCIL MEMBERS,

I invite you to join us for our annual Inside Washington small-group program of briefings and special events where you will go behind the scenes to hear from, and question, our nation's foreign policymakers. During the week, we will examine the administration's foreign policy relating to diplomacy and trade, and look at the challenges we face domestically, including ongoing issues surrounding the Russia-Ukraine conflict, climate change, and national security. Join us in May to see how these topics continue to play out with an upcoming election cycle.

Many participants return year after year, and as a nationally recognized program, members come from across the country, affording great discussion among the group. Always cited as a highlight is the opportunity to engage with speakers in a small group. Call today to book your place!

Sincerely,

Shoshana Altrichter
