Diplochat: Cuba

Wednesday, September 6, 6:00 - 7:00 p.m.
World Affairs Council
1617 JFK Blvd. Suite 1055, Philadelphia, PA 19103

Featuring remarks from Consul General of the Republic of Cuba in Washington DC Nora Alberteris Monterrey and Ambassador of the Republic of Cuba in the U.S. Lianys Torres Rivera, this discussion will focus on a range of topics about the historical US-Cuba relationship, current US-Cuba bilateral dialogues, and engagement with the American community.

Diplochat: Republic of Korea

Wednesday, November 1, 6:00 - 7:00 p.m.
World Affairs Council
1617 JFK Blvd. Suite 1055, Philadelphia, PA 19103

Consul General of the Republic of Korea Euy Whan Kim will share his experience working with the United Nations, and provide insight and discussion about the U.S.-Republic of Korea relationship, how to support local Korean communities, and how to ensure the continued health of both.

The Council's "Diplochat" series, made possible by the Satell Family Foundation, provides attendees the opportunity to have in-depth conversations with diplomats from around the world.

In addition to the complimentary registrations provided by this one-time membership offer, Individual members of the Council receive one (1) lecture pass and Dual members receive two (2) lecture passes for use at any home venue Council speaker program as part of their annual membership benefits.
